

Little Artists, Big Dreams - April 2021

What would you like to be when you grow up?

As part of our joint project with Maarif International School of Bucharest, we talked about our future dreams and what we would like to be when we grow up. Here are our drawings and thoughts about our dreams :

"I want to be rich, because if you are rich you have lots of money and then you can buy anything you want, like lots of cars or toys."
Aabishkar, Reception

"I want to be a dentist".
Alexa, Reception

"I want to be a builder and build lots of houses and towers!" Charlie, Reception

"I want to be a teacher and teach lots of children."
Joy, Reception

"I want to be an astronaut and go to space and see some aliens. That's what I want to do!" Stirling, Reception

"I want to be a diver! I watched lots of David Attenborough films and saw some beautiful things in the deep ocean and I want to be a diver, so I can dive into the ocean and see lots of things."
Marli, Reception

"When I grow up, I want to be three things: a doctor, a firefighter and a nurse. You can be three things, you know!"
Zaina, Reception

"I want to be a princess and live in a castle!"
Alicia, Reception

"I want to be a fairy and fly like a fairy. I like butterflies too and if you are a fairy you can fly like a butterfly"
 Summer, Reception

"I want to be a builder and build lots of houses for all the people who don't have houses and then I'm going to build a big house for me too!"
 Samuel - Reception

"I want to be a hairdresser and cut people's hair."
 Seren, Reception

"I want to be a builder and build lots of houses for people."
 Finlay, Reception

"I want to be a police " (officer)
 Kelvin, Reception

"I want to be a horse rider and teach people to ride horses."
